Seniors follow their dreams.

High School has finally come to an end for the class of 1982 but the memories will linger on forever. Seniors have participated in various activities and have shown a great deal of pride for the entire school.

The Seniors made future plans by talking with vocational and college counselors, visiting college campuses and taking ACT College Entrance Exams. Many students were enjoying the new internship program to experience the job or career of their choice.

As the class of 1982 graduates and reaches their long awaited dreams they find themselves experiencing the reality that a senior must face. Each will go their way to fulfill a lost dream. Good Luck Seniors!

Class adds meaning to the term 'junior'.

Junior: (jun-yer) adj. 3. Composed of juniors; of or relating to the third year of a four year course of study; as, the junior class in school.

Juniors (graduating class of 1983): Individuals who were determined to make the most out of their junior year. They were eager and intent to have good times and create lasting memories. They entered the 1981-82 school year with the confidence that they lacked as sophomores, yet they still retained that carefree air of which the typical senior is sometimes deprived. The bonds within the class were strengthened and a growing sense of pride existed. Although every class may undergo similar transitions, the class of '83 was definitely unique about how they changed. They had the desire to live up to their potential and they were believing in themselves every step of the way.

Sophomores enter with high hopes.

As the class of '84 entered Goddard High, it was a time for getting involved and establishing themselves in their new surroundings. Making new friends and developing new identities sparked enthusiasm within the sophomores. Throughout the year they adjusted to the high school way of life and fought many perils. Some of these were initiation, finding a parking space, reading novels in English, ordering a class ring, finding dates for homecoming, and passing semester tests. Finally, through working hard and striving for excellence the class of '84 hopes to achieve their goals in the coming years.

Teachers make dreams come true.

Teacher /te-char/ n 1: one that teaches; one whose occupation is to instruct.

The teaching staff of Goddard High brings out an additional meaning to the word teacher. They make the occupation of teaching an enjoyable experience because they work together to make each and every teacher a part of the system. They support and go out of their way to assure each student receives the attention they need.

Each teacher, in addition to instructing their classes, spends time in many extra-curricular activities such as sponsoring one of the many clubs or coaching a sport.

They prove that the word teacher not only means one who teaches, but a person dedicated to their profession.

When things go wrong, as they often will,
And it seems like all you're doing is going uphill,
That all life is doing is getting you down,
Put on a Smile. Wipe off that frown.
You can't ever quit, you can't ever stop
Cuz someday, surely, you'll reach the top.
But now the road may seem too long
But keep on trying, you gotta be strong.
So hold up your head; Look life in the eye
Burst straight forward and really try
And if you really get going
But suddenly start slowing
Don't lose all your hope
Cuz deep in your heart you can cope
So start again to go up that hill
And say I can, I know I will
Then when you have finally reached the top
That's not the place where you can stop
Cuz life is just starting to treat you great
The clock of time will change your fate
But don't you ever, ever give in
Cuz, in time, I know you'll win.
Now life will gave its ups and downs
But look to the sky, don't fall to the ground
Don't ever quit, Don't ever stop
Cuz someday you'll make it and stay on top.

A Special K.A.Y.

Over the years, K.A.Y.'s, or the Kansas Association of Youth, has been increasing its involvement and schedule of activities. Under the direction of a new sponsor, Mrs. Fellers, the 1981-82 school year marked a new high in the club's history. Several accomplishments throughout the year had to be credited to the K.A.Y. organization. With a lot of hard work put forth by the members, the annual bloodmobile drive exceeded the goal of 100 pints; selling candy bars was a major fund raiser for the Kidney Foundation; and Thanksgiving created the opportune time for K.A.Y.s to sponsor a food drive. Other projects included serving a meal at the Goddard Debate Tournament, sponsoring a Fall Festival Car Bash, selling carnations on Valentine's Day, and organizing the Winter Homecoming.

K.A.Y represents a special type of organization. Meaning and purpose set this club apart from the others. It reaches out and involves a variety of people. It is active and supportive, and it has unlimited potential.

Leroy and the Juggbutts show creativity in action!

he Juggbutts: Clay Hunter, Andy Oatman, ayne Greer, Phil Hermanson and Shelly arris.

It all started as a joke, but has now become the biggest phenomenom to hit Central Kansas in forty years. We speak, of course, of the musical sensation Leroy and the Jugbutts. It started that first evening that Phil Hermanson and Clay Hunter went into the Pizza Peddler in beautiful downtown Goddard America, bragging of their wonderful band (which had played one time at the Yearbook Assembly and then split up) telling the manager of the Peddler if he would let them play there, they would pack the place. Somehow, they got the job. Phil and Clay called up Andy Oatman and Wayne Greer, went out and bought instruments they had never played and began practicing.

From that point on, it was all downhill. The Juggbutts cruised through the concerts at the Peddler, the high school, the junior high, the Keg in Colwich, Kansas, and, their biggest gig, which was at the Crime Stoppers Picnic in front of 1700 people.

As the band grew, they picked up two very talented musicians. Shelly Harris made a nice addition (And the best-looking addition) to the band with her singing and playing the fiddle, and Terry Burford, the only non-Goddardite, singing and playing the harmonica.

These young people show us all that you don't necessarily need talent to succeed, only determination. Phil Hermanson summed it up best when he said, "The band helps me control my emotions, and that helps me in my school work. After all, school comes first!"

he Juggbutts take time out for a picture. Bass player: "Bambi" Hermanson; ead Guitar, Trumpet and Vocals: Wayne "WW" Greer; Drummer: Tod layton "California" Hunter; Rhythm Guitar: Andy "The Clydesdale" Oat- an; Fiddle and Vocal: Shelly "The Mouse" Harris, and not pictured: armonica and Vocal: Terry "The Burp" Burford.

Thespians are in the spotlight again.

Thespian? What is a Thespian? That is a question often asked of "rookie" sponsor, Deb Elliott. In reply she says that Thespians are a group of people who enjoy drama. The Goddard Troupe, who had become inactive in past years, is up and going strong. Twelve new members were inducted in a toga, nickname, and skate party. Bake sales were another thing Thespians tackled this year. The results were fantastic! Enough money was raised to treat the Senior members to an outing at Crowne Uptown Dinner Theater on May 6. Thespians are back in the spotlight again.

NHS is making the grade.

What does it mean to be a National Honor Society member? The nation-wide organization is composed of people who are involved in their school and maintain a high grade point average.

The NHS society participated in several activities in the 1981-1982 school year including starting the year off with a pot-luck Christmas party, college bowls, holiday bake sales, and a "free" car wash. The high point, done to the ultimate, the Honor's Banquet at the end of the year.

Quill & Scroll is 'spell'binding.

Quill and Scroll Honor Society is a group of students dedicated to excellence in writing and publishing. In order to be a member of this elite organization, you must be in the top third of your class, recommended by a teacher, and have demonstrated excellence in some form of journalism or writing.

This year's group was inducted in the fall instead of the spring so that the students would have longer to work on the Prism, the school's creative arts magazine. This publication, the third published, was the first to be done entirely outside of class. Scott Kardatzke, Editor, was joined by the other officers as prime movers of the society in this effort.

French and Spanish join together for a new club . . . Foreign Language Club

This year, the Foreign Language Departments, lead by Mr. Lazaro San Martín, Spanish Department, and newcomer Mrs. Sandra Carter, French Department, decided to pioneer a revolutionary concept in foreign language clubs. Instead of traditionally segregated clubs, the teachers decided to combine the clubs into one in order to eliminate rivalry and promote entrance fees.

Student Government "takes off"!

Student (stoodent,styoo) 1. One who attends a school, college, or university, 2. One who makes a study of something.

Government (govern-ment) 1. The act or process of governing. 2. The office, function, or authority of one who governs or a governing body. Student Government is an elective body of students which have as their duty the representative of the student body ideas and opinions to the Administration. They strive for new and better changes in the schools policies.

A Typical Meeting? A few of the Stugo members gather around for a brief summary of what has been accomplished in the past year.

Pride is Wheatchixs' motivating factor.

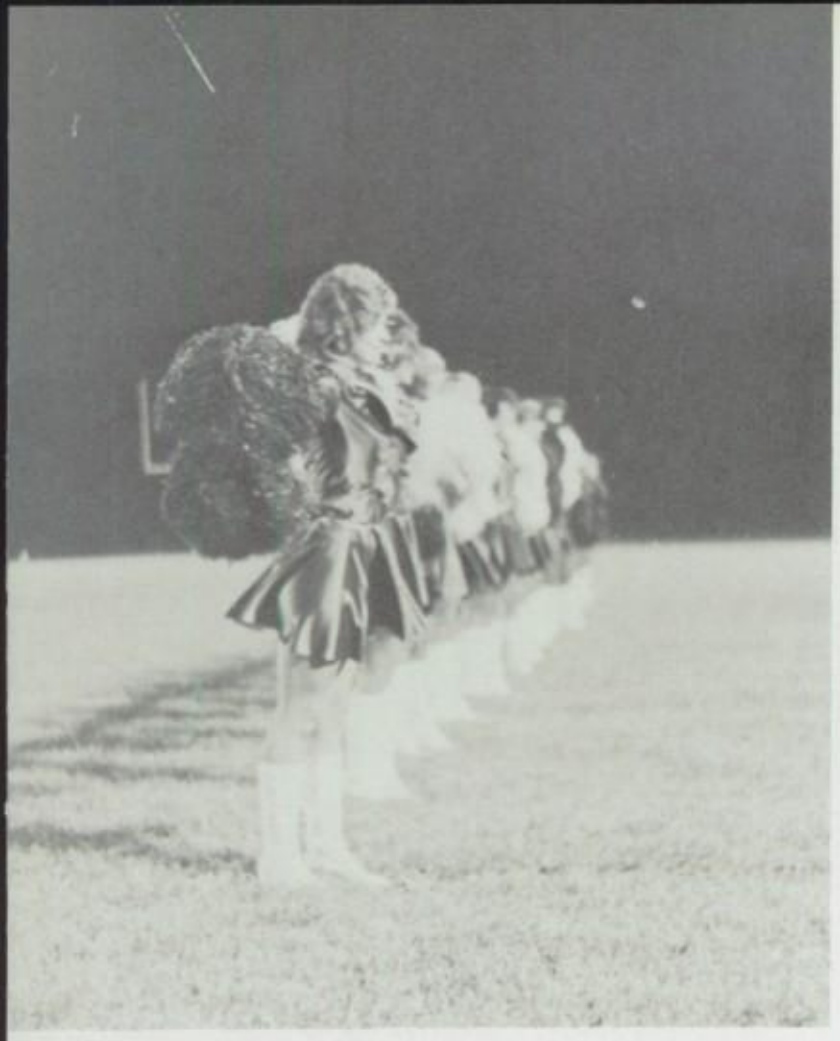
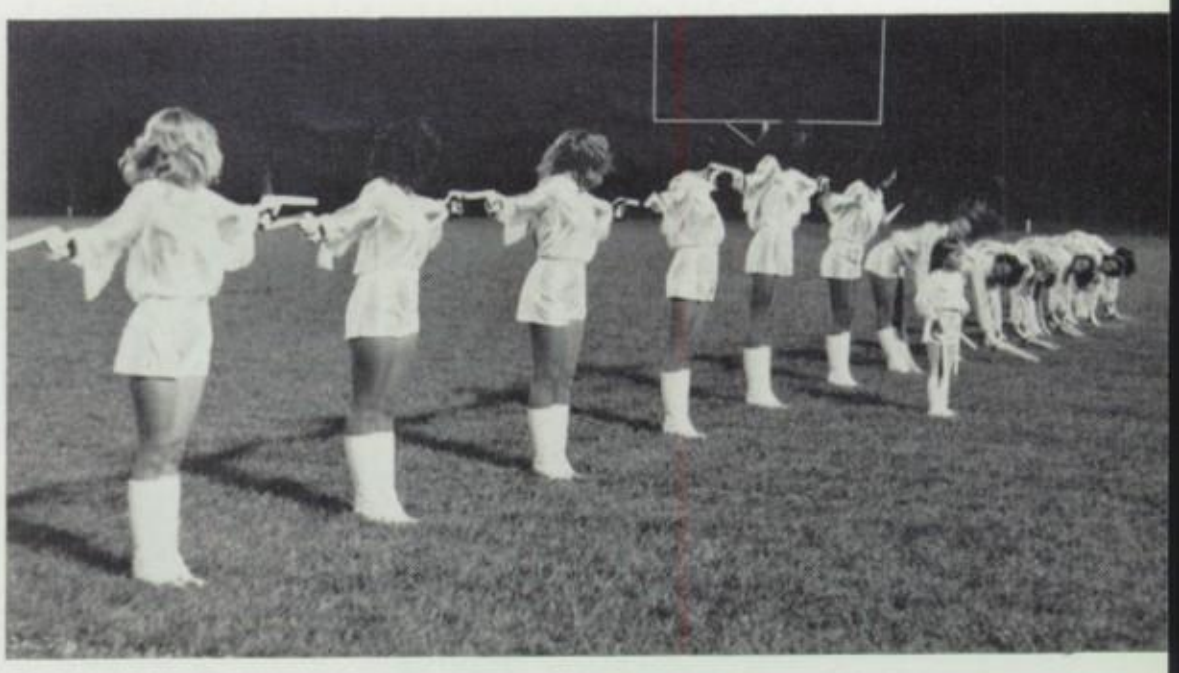
Throughout the drill team clinic, tension built and nervousness overwhelmed those girls trying out for the Goddard Wheatchixs. Amid the tears when the judges announced their choices, a process began to repeat itself once again. Just like the years before, these new members had to acquire their personal experiences from camp, early morning practices, and their crazy second-hour class, and soon the old and new members naturally combined to form a renewed unit with high goals and expectations.

From this point on, every drill that they learned and every hour spent practicing was done with a level of pride that was only comparable to the Wheatchixs. All of the work and energy they put forth before school and through class were geared toward that perfected performance in front of an appreciative home crowd. These were the times when it became evident that once again a squad of girls had transformed into the traditional Goddard Drill Team, for each one of them had earned that familiar trademark of pride and excellence.

THROUGH YOUNGER EYES. Tonya Wallace, the Wheatchixs' mascot, is intrigued with the festivities and glamour of the homecoming ceremony.

IN THE ENTIRETY. Posing with one of their several props, the 1981-82 Drill Team includes those sitting, Diane Milne, Vicki Mickelson, and Jill Farver, those kneeling, Sjonna Ochsner, Dawn Morrison, Kristi Travillion, Traci Becker, and Shana Ginest, and those standing, Teresa Fleming, Shelly Ginest, Becky Budzowski, Paula Koenigs, Shelly Harris, Cheri Eisenman, and Becky Bogue.





RIPPLE . . . 5,6,7,8. "Ripples" can bring an ordinary routine to life and are often the favorites of an audience. Just like every other part of a drill, timing and precision are the key elements and the Wheatchixs perform them like an art.

DIMENSIONS. Keeping the line straight can sometimes be a difficult task during a performance, but the effectiveness it adds to a drill makes it a rule of thumb for the Wheatchixs.

THEIR FEARLESS LEADER. Being in charge of the drillteam is a terrific responsibility which doesn't fall upon the sponsors, but solely upon the officers, which are Jill Farver, Lieiutenant, Diane Milne, co-captain, and Vicki Mickelson, captain.

NEVER A BORING MOMENT. From their favorite drill, 'Too much Time on My Hands', to 'Orange Blossom Special' to 'Why Do Fools Fall in Love' (below), the drill team provided variety in their routines throughout the entire year.

EMEMBER THE SMILE. ill Farver, Teresa Fleming, nd Shelly Ginest perform with the typical precision and accuracy.

Debaters take 1st again at League

The debaters of 1981 placed at many of their tournaments. They placed 1st at League for the third consecutive year, 4th at Junction City, 3rd in Novice division at Derby, 2nd at Pratt, 4th at Goddard, and 6th at Kapaun Mt. Carmel. They also took 2nd in Sweeptstakes at Junction City and 4th. at Pratt. Debaters went on to take 5th at Regionals. Although, they did not make state, Jr. Steve Buren says, "We will do it next year."

Forensics does it again

The Forensics class of 1982 had one of their most productive years considering that there were only nine students in the class. Seven of the members who made a first divisional rating at Regionals were qualified for state.

Those members were: Becky Pate, Jr., solo acting and prose; Nita Lieber, Soph., improvised duet acting and prose; Glen Newberry, Sr., improvised duet acting; Mike Roehrman, Soph., improvised duet acting and duet acting; Jeff Komp, Jr., improvised duet acting; AraLea Wade, Soph., duet acting and poetry; Shari Winfrey, Sr., solo acting. Andy Oatman, Wayne Greer, and Beth Moore were not in the class, but went to compete in some of the tournaments.

Mrs. Elliott thought that the class did exceptionally well and most of them plan to go out next year.

Nita Lieber and Glen Newberry show the crowd how to clap at the Awards Banquet.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The activities of this year's Varsity Cheerleaders began long before the school year started. The squad had many morning practices in the summer to prepare themselves for camp at KU. In the four days of competition the girls received many honors and ribbons both as a squad and as individuals. The girls ended the summer raising money by holding a cheerleading clinic. Cheering for the very successful teams was a lot of hard work, but the support, spirit, and pride of the student body made being a Varsity Cheerleader very worthwhile and something to be proud of.

Defense Lions, Defense!

Stomp em, Beat em, Defeat Em!

Go Bananas, Koni!

Angie Wolfe smiles big for the camera.

We're number one as you can see!

We are the GHS, oh yes, the very Best!

Lions stand tall.

Go, Fight, Win!

Mighty Lions gonna stomp em down.

J.V. and Wrestling Cheerleaders

Being a cheerleader takes a lot of dedication, time, and hard work. This year's Junior Varsity and Wrestling cheerleaders did just that. Both squads began with summer practices in preparation for camp. The J.V. squad cheered for not only J.V. games but also sophomore games. They also attended every Varsity game supporting their team. The wrestling squad cheered for all matches and tournaments. Besides cheering, the girls also made posters, baked and made things for the team and helped out with pep assemblies. Thanks to a lot of hard work and dedication each squad had a very successful and fun year.

Top to bottom, Wendy Carrier (head), Weena Cox, AraLea Wade, and Cheri Welch.

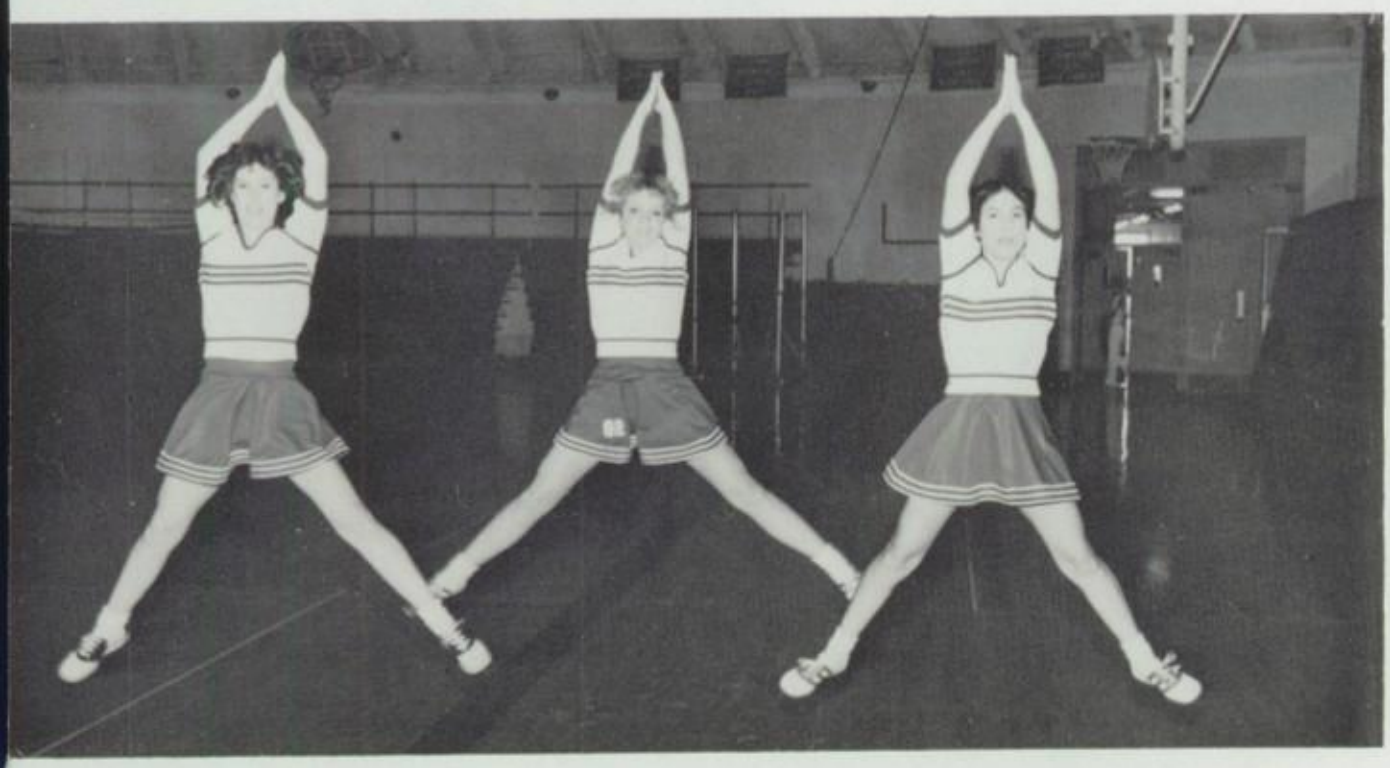
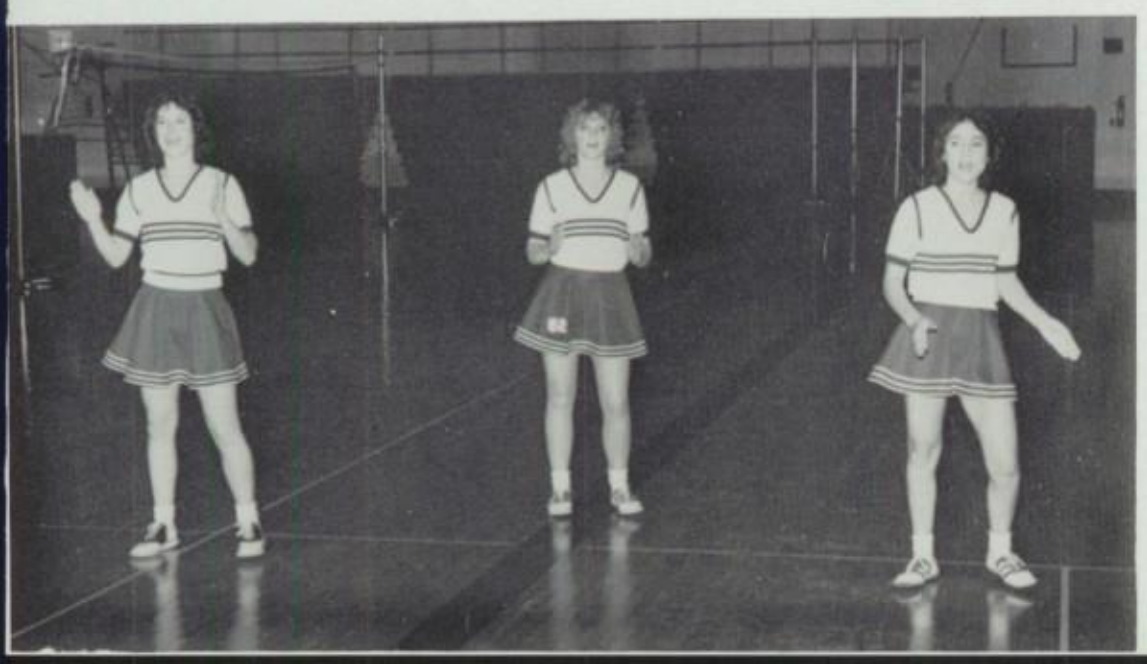
The Wrestling Cheerleaders start the cheer of 'Move It Out, Lions Team.'



The girls show their support and enthusiasm by cheering on the wrestling team to a victory.



AraLea, Christl, and Genea get the team 'Fired Up' and enthused for the match.

We've got the spirit

The spirit of the '81-'82 school year helped carry the teams on to successful seasons. The cheerleaders were responsible for keeping the enthusiasm and spirit active and alive at the games, while showing good sportsmanship. Each pep assembly was packed with spirit and inspiration to urge our teams on to victories.

Everyone lines up to cheer the basketball team on, as the Mighty Lions stomp 'em Down!

Spirit Club

Spirit Club, traditionally, sponsored fall homecoming. Support was shown by the students and faculty as they eagerly participated in Spirit Week. The homecoming dance was a huge success with Fletcher Foster singing the theme song: "Out Here on my Own."

Each member of Spirit Club chose a person on the girls' and boys' basketball teams or the wrestling team and secretly left signs or other goodies on their lockers to encourage them.

Think, Think, Think. Theresa DeMars and Kim Ediger pull together to discuss copy.

How much money did he give me? Linda Brandt, Mrs. Criss and Brenda Croop work at concession stand at a basketball game to raise money for a good cause . . . Yearbook!

Yearbook decides to follow dreams.

Deadline. That's got to be the most frightening word a yearbook staff could hear. It's a lot of fun knowing you're putting together a memory for so many people, and that's precisely what the yearbook staff is all about.

When the book starts out, everyone has a dream of what it's going to look like. When it's all completed, the dream becomes reality with your efforts in the palm of your hand.

Deadline!?! Scott Harrison and Michele Shea relax after a long week . . . right after deadline.

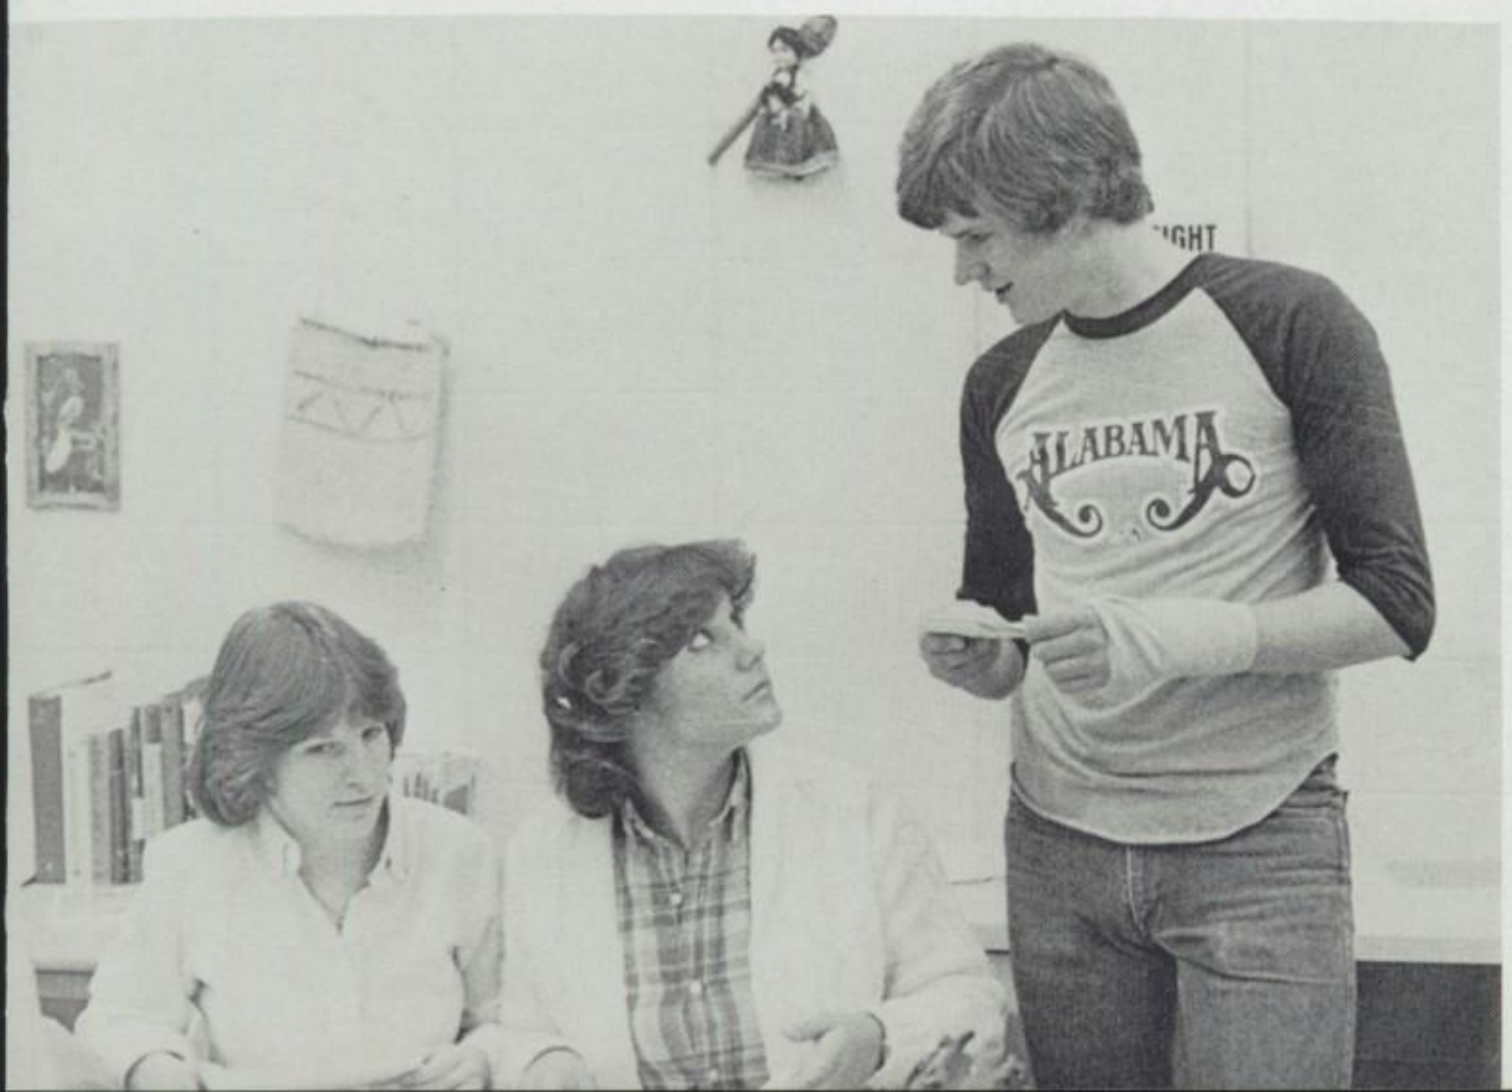
Planning ahead. Mrs. Criss and Paula Koenigs, with hopes for the future, look over the yearbook applications for the 1982-1983 Yearbook.

Heaven help us. Cindy Cushing, James Christensen and Janey Bell are stunned at the amount of money needed to complete the yearbook.



You've got to be kidding. Linda Brandt, Becky Bogue and Dean Reida have a difference of opinion over the pictures for Prom.

Last Day '82

May 27, 1982 at 2:41 p.m. was the start of Goddard High's Annual School's Out Water Fight. About 100 students, loaded with everything from water balloons to shaving cream and eggs, were ready for fun and excitement. Everything went great and when the students left, they took home the remains of the fight on themselves. Everyone had lots of fun and some are just waiting for the same time next year.

Here are some girls that are joining in on the fun.

Paula Koenigs and Cherie Barnes are getting into the trunk of their car for some more water balloons.

Boy, did Scott Delamore really get creamed!

It looks as if the whole student body got involved.

Spirit Week

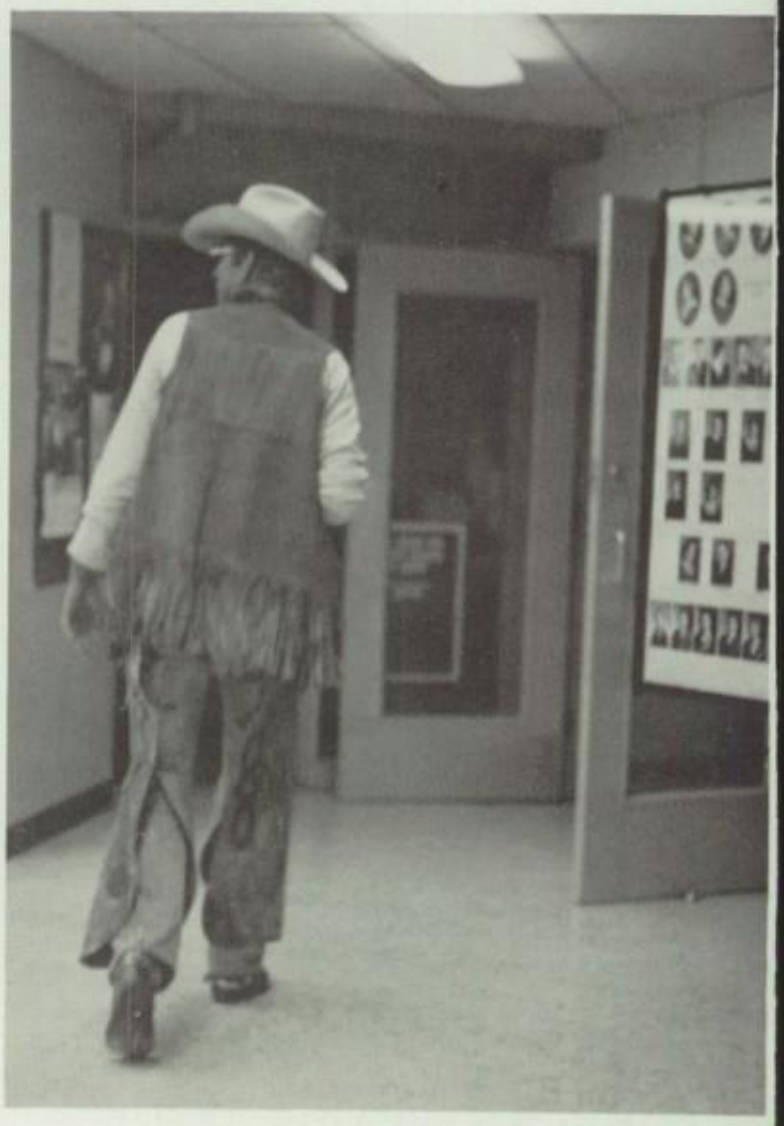
In honor of Homecoming, Spirit Club sponsored a week of craziness in the form of Spirit Week. In this week we saw the near overthrow of the school administration by a gang of renegade punk-rockers and organized crime merged with the Goddard branch of the Mafia. But, luckily for us, Sheriff Plagge and Deputy Wiebe were on hand to corral the bad guys.

HIT MEN: James Christensen, Glen Newberry, Todd Thompson, Scott Kardatzke, go over last minute plans before "tak'un da skool."

ALL IN A DAYS WORK- Our beloved Sheriff Plagg takes a look over the spread after restoring our humbl town to peace and tranquility.



TOWN MEETING- Goddard students call a special meeting to form a posse to "catch them there varmits."

A rare breed of slaves

Three snow days prior to and during the week of Winter Homecoming added confusion and chaos to the activities that had been planned by the K.A.Y. members. Calling off school Tuesday for snow resulted in a postponement of the slave auction and a cancellation of Hippy Day. When the backdrop was burned was burned on Wednesday another shadow seemed to be cast on the homecoming festivities.

But, nevertheless, the spirit and excitement for homecoming was raised with the fun and ingenuity of slave day and the approach of the years biggest rival, Buhler. Delivering Valentine's Day carnations also aided in elevating the homecoming morale, and in the end, the mission of K.A.Y. week was successful.

A ROARIN' WHEATCHIX? It was a well concealed secret that Tim Seachris was a member of the Goddard Drill Team. Somehow mirrored sunglasses became an addition to his standard uniform.

SEEING IS BELIEVING. Scott Harrison makes a successful attempt at being the Dolly Parton of the sophomore class.

ISHING THE LIMIT. Mrs. Elliot was the unfortunate

Concerts are entertainment for everyone.

Many hours of hard work and planning to into each concert. Band and Choir alike come early and stay late, but the results are worth it. The audience is always appreciative of their efforts.

When is it our turn? Front row clarinets wait their turn to play.

In Concert. The Concert Choir performs early in the year before the new choir robes arrive.

The 1981 Fall Homecoming Festivities went very smoothly. This year's queen nominees were so beautiful that the audience hardly noticed Goddard's 10-7 defeat by Wellington. This was the Lion's first and only defeat of the regular season and really sparked them on to win the remainder of their games. Kelle Oliphant and Dawn Morrison were named King and Queen as Fletcher Foster sang beautifully, "Out Here On My Own," the 1981 Fall Homecoming theme.

FALSE ACCUSATION- Is Kelle Oliphant really kissing Dawn in front of everybody? When asked he claimed she had something in her eye!

EXCITED: Mike Dean, Richard Wood, Jeff Johnson, Andy Oatman, and Kelle Oliphant can hardly wait for the Corvettes to make it around the track and "Bwing dem da goils!"

Even a fire to the backdrop the day before didn't stop the fun of the Valentine's Dance at Homecoming, and the basketball win over Buhler brought the crowd up even more. Fletcher Foster sang the theme song, "She's Got a Way," as Marc Schoenecker and Christy Putnam were crowned King and Queen of the 1982 Winter Homecoming.

Tradition of successful bloodmobile continued.

Year after year, Goddard maintained the top ranked high school bloodmobile in the city, and the 1981-82 school year was no exception. For the second consecutive year the K.A.Y. organization worked with Mrs. Bowden, the school nurse, to prepare for the Red Cross visit. After the final arrangements had been made, reaching the goal of 100 pints of blood did not look promising. Late in the afternoon of the day of the visit, a final announcement was made urging students to volunteer and the final result was a successful total of 110 pints.

"MUST I?" Keeping the mind off the arm is the trick that every donor tries to perform. Here, Tim Nelson, awaits for the nurse with apprehension.

Mrs. Sue Bowden does it again!

IS THIS OUR BASKETBALL COURT? In a matter of thirty minutes, the faculty from the Red Cross transforms the gymnasium into the local blood center. Their job requires them to work with efficiency and confidence despite any type of surroundings.

Neil Simon's "Plaza Suite"

When the curtain fell on the last performance of the 1981 fall play, Plaza Suite, Mrs. Elliott breathed a deep sigh of relief. Her sigh wasn't because the play had gone poorly, because it went quite well. Her nervous tension was caused by the fact that this was her first year at Goddard and she didn't realize the difficulty she faced in tackling the GHS Drama Department. Somehow she pulled the cast and crew together; Andy finally learned his lines, the door stayed on the hinges, and Plaza Suite turned out to be one of the finest productions Goddard has ever had.

Andy Oatman and Christy Putnam are photographed in a nervous moment just before curtain. (Shortly after they made a mad dash for the bathroom.)

High School Sweethearts, Fletcher Foster and Becky Pate, engage in a passionate kiss trying to rekindle an old flame. (For some reason this was the most rehearsed scene in the play.)

David Higgins is not taming lions, but trying to get his daughter out of the bathroom.

What a tease! Sam's (Andy Oatman) face shows the pain as he catches a glimpse of his secretary's (Jenni Wallace) famous legs.

David finally persuades Cherie to come out of the bathroom but he had to use her fiancee Borden Eisler, (Richard Richey) to say something philosophical and meaningful to his bride-to-be, .... "HEY MIMSY, COOL IT!" Who ever said there was a communication gap?

Norma Hubley (Shelley Patton) is tired of taking abuse from her husband. She decides to fight back in the best way she can.

'Damn Yankees' certainly had heart.

What is it about a drama production that pulls everyone involved with it so close together? Why does an audience leave the final production with such a special feeling when they've seen a job well done? Maybe the only way these questions can ever be answered is by first asking, 'How does it all begin?'

A very wide variety of talented and unique individuals are cast together. Automatically they forget all prentenses, and their work, cooperation, and acquaintances with each other begin. Every person from the lead role to the stage crew manager to the prompter to the light technician plays a vital role in the final production. As opening night approaches, the actors gradually grow into their characters and begin to add their own special touches and personality. It's shocking to witness the difference between the scene the audience sees on stage and the one of frenzy and hushed excitement back stage. As the members of the audience become enthralled with the storyline and the distinct and different personalities, backstage, the props and scenery are quietly moved and rearranged; the actors concentrate on their lines and characters while they avidly await their cues. Perhaps the most unique experience the audience doesn't relate to is the anticipation among the cast prior to the opening curtain and the sense of accomplishment which explodes among them just as it makes its final closing.

But for the cast of 'Damn Yankees', the production also created lasting and unforgettable memories. The actors' professional, yet personal, relationship was clearly evident on the final night after the closing curtain when the actors spontaneously started singing 'You've Gotta Have Heart'. Perhaps the best way to summarize the general feeling that was present is to restate a portion of Mrs. Elliot's prayer which she said on the closing night, ' . . . I thank you, Lord, for the relationships that were allowed to form because all of us were able to work so closely together.' 'Friendship and love are two of the most vital and precious gifts in this life and through being with these people we have acquired both of these.'

THEY STOLE THE SHOW. Teresa Fleming and Janelle Hoisington perfect the art of comic relief in their characterization of two over-the-hill, boy-crazy fans.

'HE'S NEAR TO YOU'. In this ironic scene, young Joe Hardy (Fletcher Foster) attempts to explain to his wife (Shari Winfrey) that her husband still cares and will return to her.

'YOU'RE NOT MY TYPE'. Becky Pate and Fletcher Foster deserved academy awards for staying in character and keeping a straight face through this seductive scene.

DECEIT AND EVIL. Becky Pate and David Higgins do a hellacious job at their portrayal of this villainous pair, Mr. Applegate, the devil, and Lola, his assistant.

TYPICAL MIDDLE-AGED FOLKS. Shari Winfrey and Glen Newberry set the pace in the opening scene. Shari not only works on her needle-point here, in character, but also prior to the opening curtain in order to calm her nerves.

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT'S DUE. Half of the people responsible for a successful production are never seen on stage. Here, for a brief moment, actors, chorus members, light technicians, prompters, directors, stage crew members, accompanists, publicizer, and many others receive their well-deserved recognition.

'WE'VE GOT TO THINK ABOUT THE GAME'. Actually, though, the boys' chorus was thinking more about their dance steps.

THE TYPICAL PRESS. Debbie Humphrey and Mike Roehrman enact a classic confrontation between the press and the sports' world.

Lawrence Welk? No, just Senior John Bourbonnais showing his graceful style to Lori Calvert. Bubbles, bubbles and more bubbles.

1-2-3-4. Come on you guys act like you know what in the heck were doing!

I Could Have Danced all Night. Seen here Seniors Joe Carpenter and Sondra Alexander. Joe is showing Sondra all the right moves.

Slowing Things Down. One of the favorites at Prom, the slow dance. Seen here Johnny Ray, his date Mary Irsik, and Gary Reiswig.

Kiss Me You Fool! Jill Farver and Kelly Hutchens enjoy the prom as well as one another.

Bull What? Scott Sanderson and Cheri Eisenman demonstrate what the 'cotton eyed joe' is all about.

Prom: The Spring Fling

The Senior Prom ..... a magic night. It is a night hen the girls really look like girls and the boys really tice it. A night when fathers see their lovely young ughters leave the house in filmy, frilly formals with me "strange looking kid", who they have been dating for e last three months; who just got his hair cut.

"Through the Years" by Kenny Rogers was selected for e 1982 Theme. A Wichita band "County Line" was cho- n to play at the Caprice on April 2, 1982.

Although the prom lasts until midnight many of the omgoers will have changed by then and headed for the st of the nights activities which include, skating parties, te movies and parties in various motels around town. It's night to stay up all night. The Junior/Senior Prom will a memorable event. "Through the Years," it will stand t in everyone's memories and touch many hearts.

ey're a Bad Mambi Jambi. All in white, Brian (bones) Paul, Marc ydesdale) Schoenecker and David (T.) Ternes.

Take Five. Phil Hermanson and his date Michelle Simon take a quick snooze before the next dance.

Girls, Girls and more Girls. Mike Pannell can not settle for just one dance, he has to go with all three; Diane Milne; Cheri Barnes and Shana Ginest.

Really Swingin'. Wild -n- crazy Seniors, Kris Bauer and Linda Brandt, know what a really good time is all about.

Graduation is the beginning of dreams to follow.

Seated in front of parents and relatives on Commencement day, were a group of people with many questions and mixed emotions. What side does the tassel go on? Who was in front of me at rehearsal? How am I going to keep this hat on? For the graduated class of nineteen eighty-two, those questions are behind, but as always, others take their place-perhaps those which are even more challenging. The question is for only one to answer and each graduate will take the test. It's not really one that you can pass or fail but rather one you have to accomplish and grade for yourself.

Congratulations Mark! Mr. Plagge graciously hands Mark Erhlich his long-awaited diploma.

Celebration! The real joy of graduating comes when the final word is said and the last note is played.

The nervous Jerry. Salutatorian Jerry Radke spoke of the hardships that lie ahead, and the importance of creativity.

ne last good-bye. Hanna Holma and Debbie Rumsey share e joys of graduating.

Standing proud. Valedictorian Glynne Casteel talked about the never-ending learning in life.

It's a night of recognition.

The tables are set, the flowers are there, everything is ready for the arrival of the 1982 honorees and friends. After months of money-raising events, the National Honor Society, who had hosted the banquet, could finally set back and enjoy the Fourth Annual Honors Banquet. Held at the Cotillion on May 10, the first part of the evening was spent listening to the Mid-Kansas Jazz Quintet with a solo sung by Fletcher Foster, while dining on a dinner catered by G & G Catering. Mr. Michael "Ol' Mike" Oatman, disc jockey at KFDI spoke to the guests about goals. Then came the moment everyone had been waiting for, the presentation of the awards. Time was taken out for a skit put on by the Forensics team, a very enjoyable comedy. Another successful Honor's Banquet was over.

Congratulations! Michelle Silva and Kristen Daniels share a moment of friendship after the Honor's Banquet.

Meeting your goals. Speaker Michael Oatman, KFDI disc jockey, lets honorees in on a secret. "Goals are mandatory."

Thank You! Thank You! Thank You! Forensics members David Higgins and Mike Roehrman take a moment out to thank everyone for their award, in a skit put on by the Forensics team.

Cake anyone? NHS members prepare to serve refreshments at the reception following the banquet.

Goddard football shoots at State.

Goddard Lions ended the 1981 season with an 8-2 record. The only losses were the state playoff finalists Wellington and Kapaun. The lions defeated Liberal, Campus, Buhler, and Hays.

One Goddard senior has been chosen to play in the Kansas Shrine Bowl. Kelle Oliphant, a 6-foot 3-inch, 200 lb. tackle played superbly. He earned All-State and All-League honors as did many other Lions.

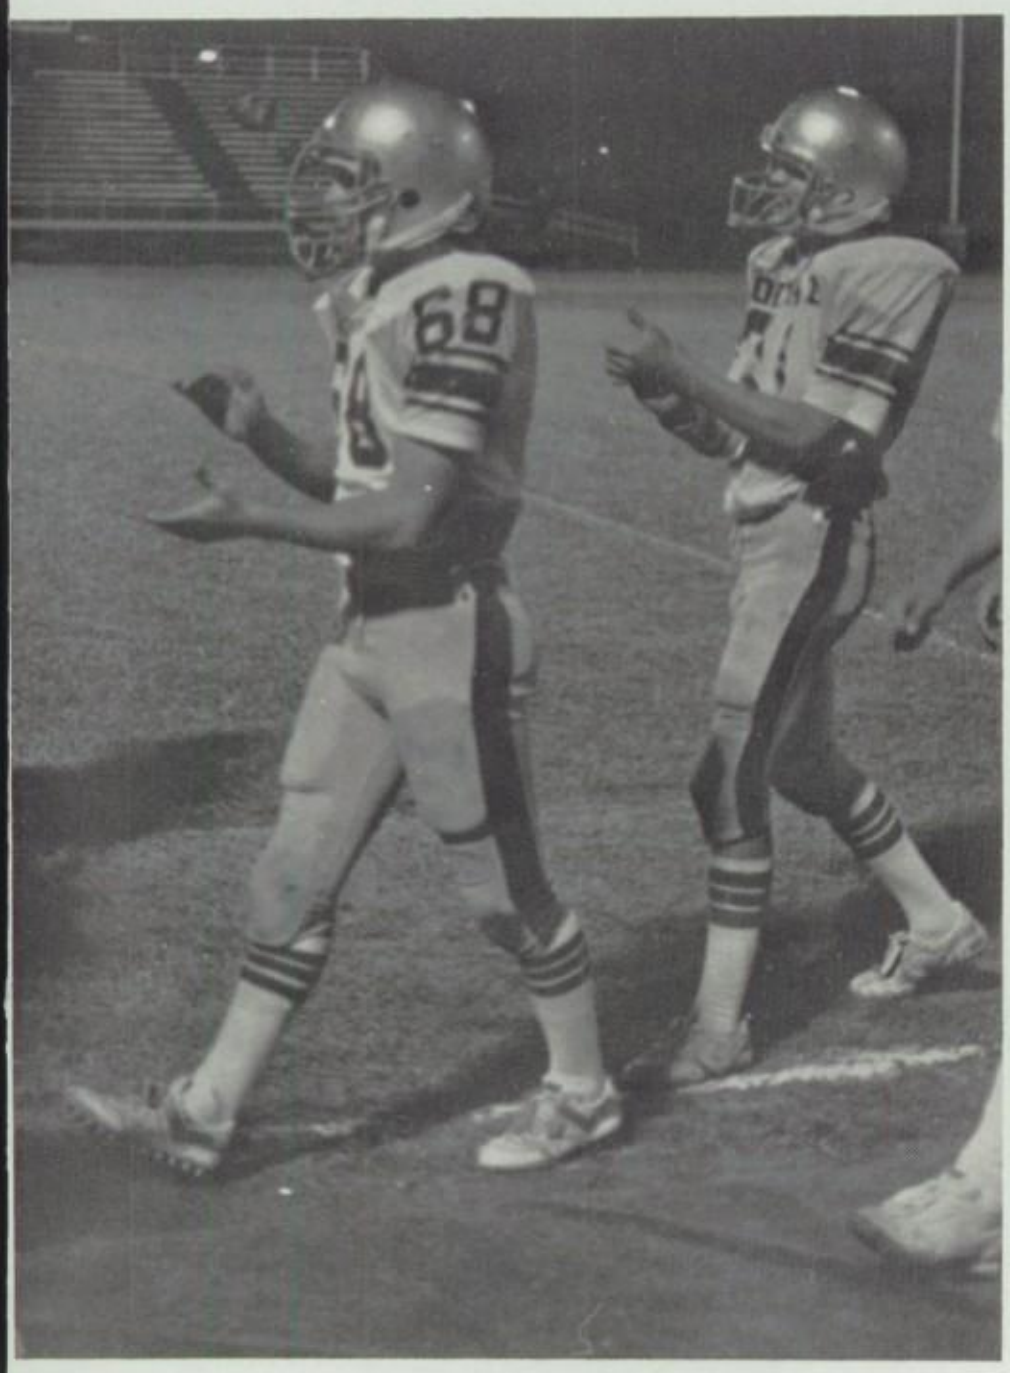
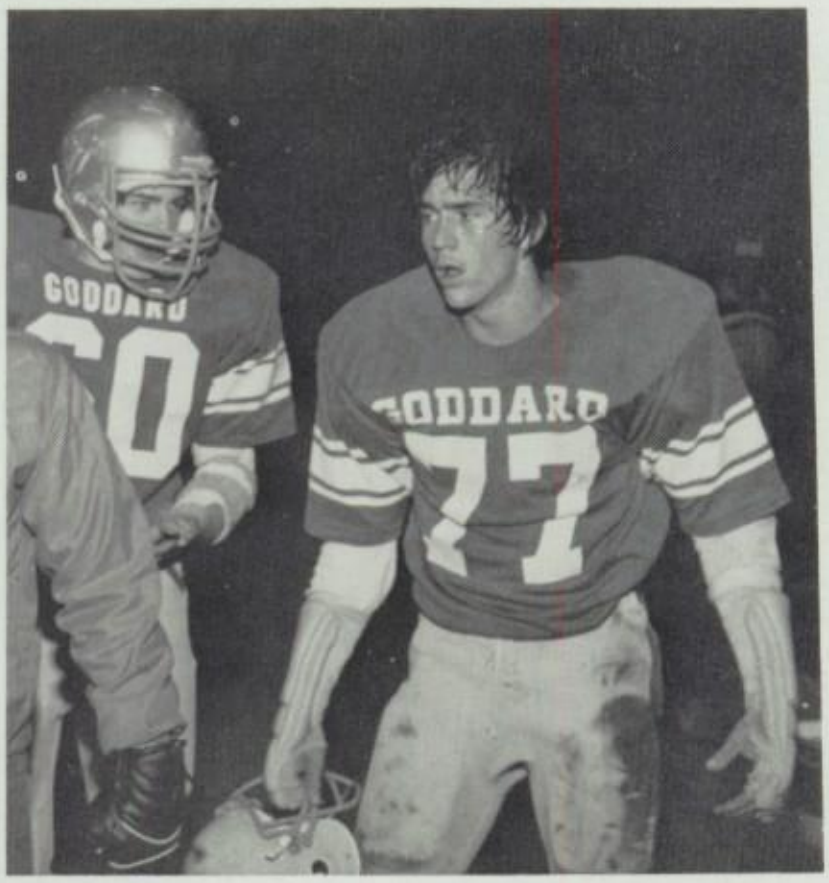
The muddy Lions are hungry to get the second half started.





Sr. Mark Ehrlich is eager to get into the ball game as Brian McGoldrick gives support.

Sophomores Todd Wenzel and Tim Strunk give encouragement as the Lions roll the points against Buhler.

J. V. has another successful year.

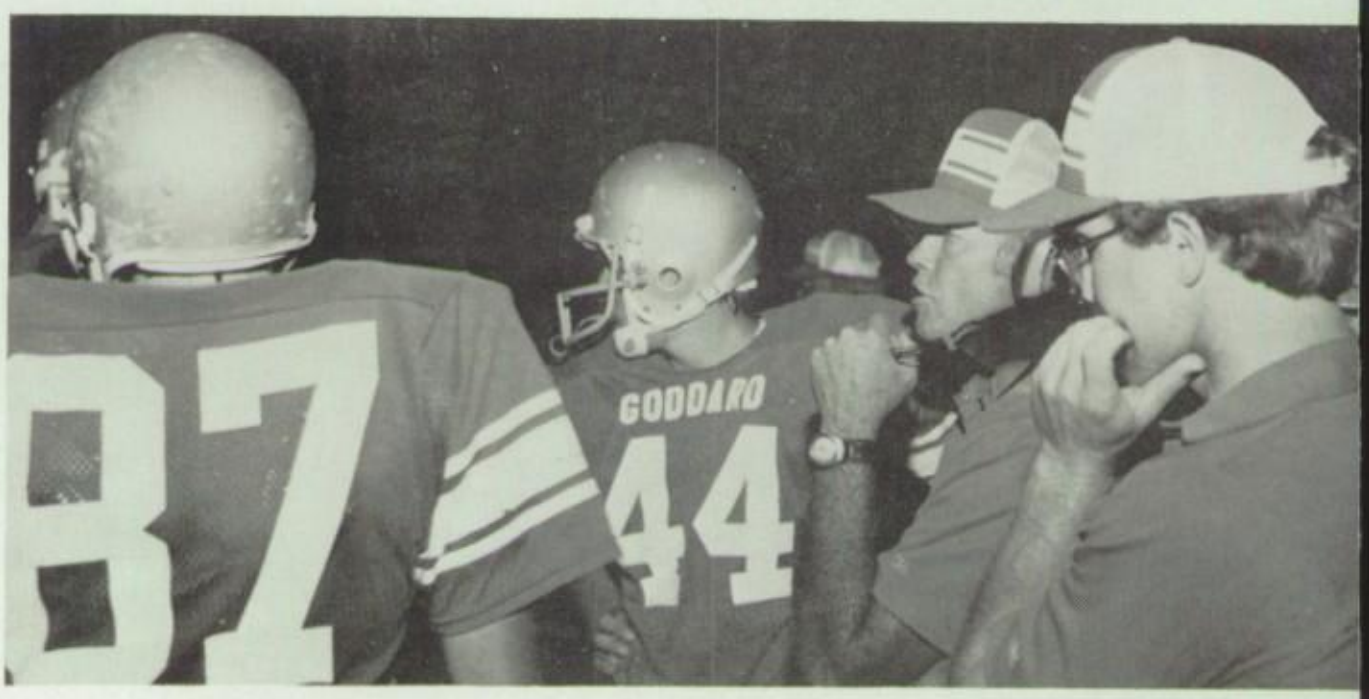
The Goddard J.V. team finished their year with a 5-1 record. The players gained an awful lot of experience and helped give the varsity depth. The J.V.'s only lose was a very close game at Wellington. The J.V. won games against Southeast, Mulvane, and Buhler. The Goddard J.V. has beaten Southeast for the last three years.

Lions Craig Becker, Kelly Oliphant, and Randy Blubaugh head for side line for a well deserved rest.



Jr. Shane Langston discusses strategy with coaches Orth and Mies.

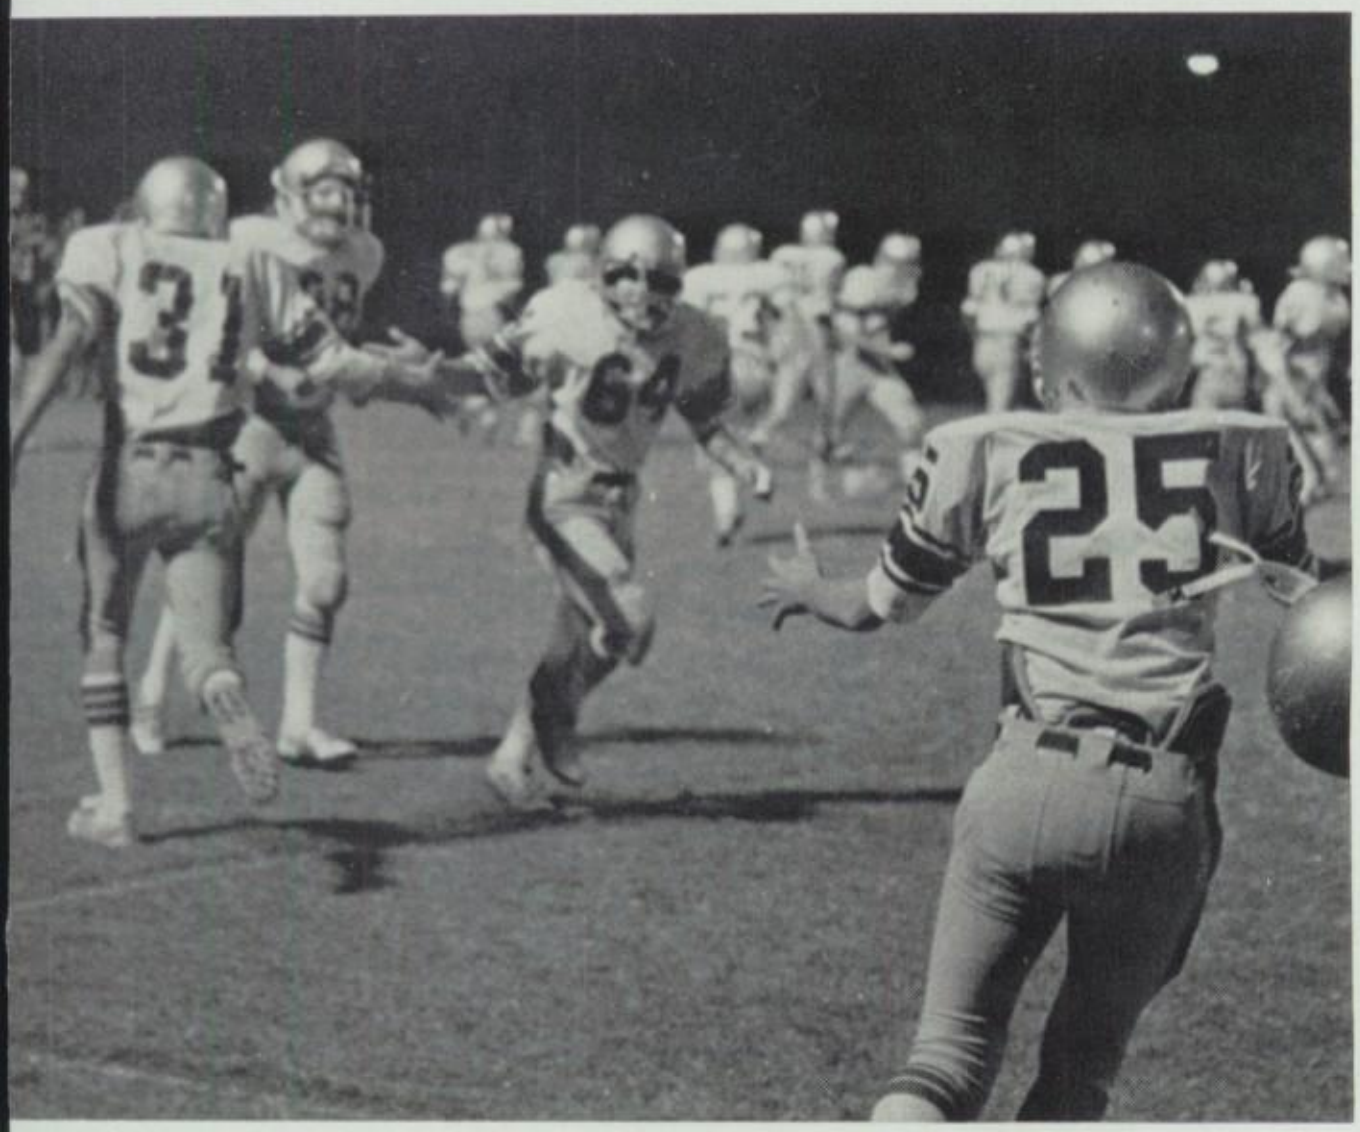
Jr. wide receiver Mike Talley breaks a tackle against Wellington.

Sophs. David Pearson and David Edwards get a rest on the sidelines, as Coach Mies and Coach Stucky give orders.



Soph. Mike Dean is congratulated by Tim Strunk after scoring his first J.V. touchdown.

Girls take fourth at State

The Volleyball of 1981 had a very successful year as the girls took fourth at State. Although the team consisted of only six seniors, the Juniors and Sophomores showed that they can keep the team alive in '82.

The team ran through some grueling exercises throughout the year, thus putting them ahead in the end. As the head coach once said, "That's not Bad!"

Assistant Coach Jim Lester and Head Coach Paul LaBru

Jeanette Sheehy looks on, as Diana Hanna spikes the ball over.

Shelly Craig spikes one for the Lions.

Carol Lett blocks the ball gaining another point for Goddard.

Cross Country

And they're off! Rick Olson takes the lead in practice.

The Goddard Cross Country Team was off to a difficult beginning with only two returning starters. Although the team's record was not as good as past teams, this doesn't begin to tell the complete story. This was a transition year for Cross Country since many new runners came out for the team and gained valuable experience. Coach Bowden wanted the team members to learn that running seven miles every day wasn't going to kill them, and that they could even enjoy it.

First Row: T. Wyant, H. Holma, S. Statts, K. Niefert, C. Gaylord; Second Row: D. Kuehn, N. Maden, B. Tunks, P. Michelbach, L. Luckman, M. Reams, C. Brown, M. Moore, S. McIntosh; Third Row: G. # Ace, Smash, Volley

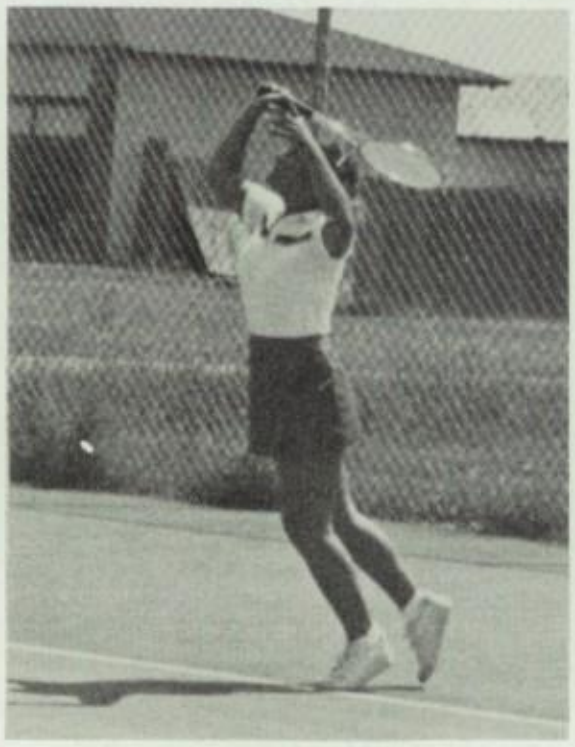
The 1982 girls tennis team did well, although they were without a junior varsity team this year. Everyone on the team supported each other with much spirit and enthsiasm.

Lori Bales had an exceptionally good season, bringing home a first, or second, or an occasional third place medal from every meet.

All of the girls showed much improvement this year despite the fact that the team was small.

Up . . . Up and away! Becky Bogue patiently waits to return the ball.



CONCENTRATION: Kim Ediger watches her opponent struggle to return her serve.

Goddard Basketball

The 1981-1982 basketball team under the superb coaching of Terry Boren, Don Stucky and Casey Jones, had a very successful year. The team, consisting of only four seniors, Marc Shoenecker, Brian Paul, Daivd Minish and Brad Blake, in addition to the juniors and one sophomore, came in second in the League. The Lions were four down at the Christmas break and then leveled off in January and February.

J.V. goes undefeated

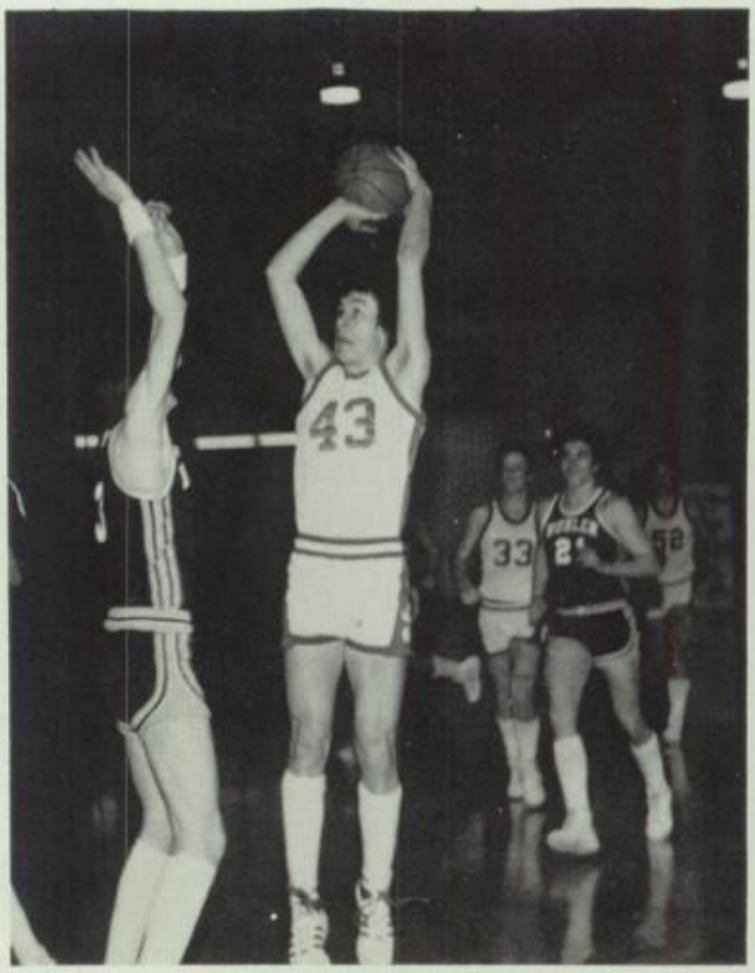
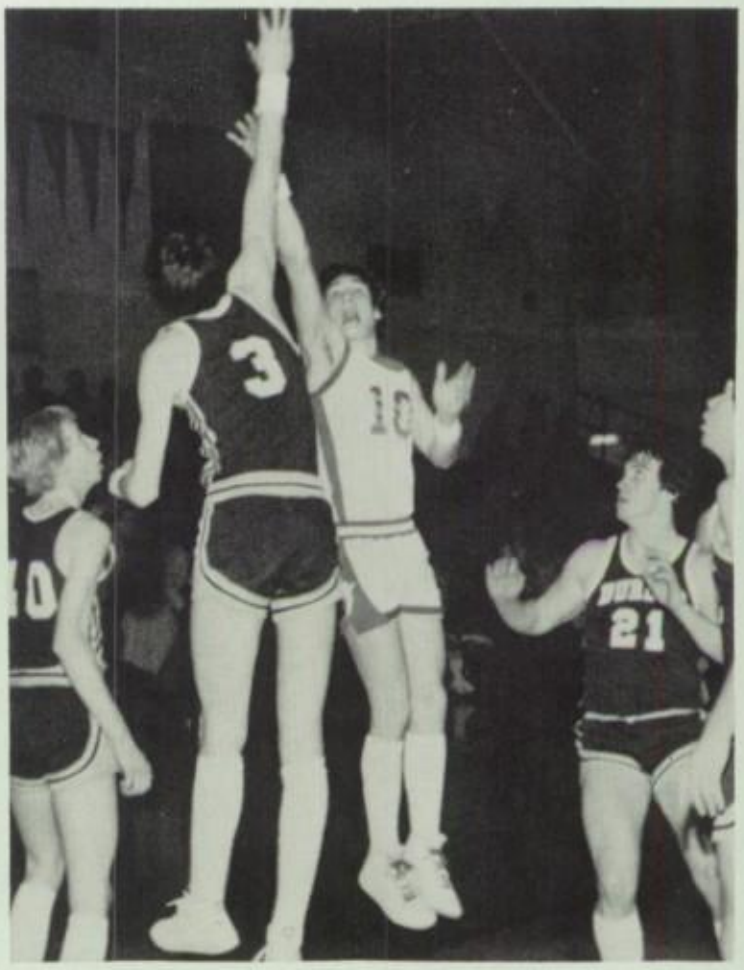
The Goddard J.V. Basketball team finished the 1981-1982 season with 16-0 record. Goddard's closest game was at Buhler where the Lions won by eight. Team members were Jrs. Mike Pannell, Mike Talley, Brad Dean, Chuck Taylor, Derick Landsverk, Alan McGregor, Bruce Bachelor, Sophs. Mike Noller, Tim Strunk, Mark Kendrick, Rick Bradford, and Kenny Sherry. The Lions hope to equal this record in the 1982-1983 season.



Jr. Bruce Bachelor squares up to the basket as he shoots for two.

Jr. Chuck Taylor, Mike Pannell, and Soph. Tim Strunk crash the boards for a rebound against Buhler.



Jr. Brad Dean battles to the basket as he adds to the Lion's score.

Junior Varsity keeps on playing

This basketball season may not have been one of the best J.V. seasons, but for those persons who were on the team the whole year, it was an experience which will not be forgotten. J.V. coach San Martin, has really helped the girls to be more prepared for next year when he hopes to win at Tournament.

Although there are many of the girls who have come and gone, those who stayed with it had the courage and the guts to try hard for a hopeful win at tournament.

Sophs. Karol Gould and Michelle Simon go in for rebound.

Soph. Shelly Roelfs takes a shot as Soph. Beth Loibl watches.

Soph. Michelle Simon tests her luck at the free throw line.

Soph. Kim McLeland attempts to steal the ball from her opponent while she passes.

Girls take second at League

Although they had a small number of athletes out for Girls Basketball, the coach felt that they had a successful season. They ended the season with a 12-8 record and finished second in the League. The main highlight of the season was to have three girls (Jr., Lisa Eck, Sr., Shelly Graig, and Jr., Jeanette Sheehy) make All-League and for Shelly Graig to make second team All-State. The coach thought that the squad of girls matured immensely throughout the season and hopes that this will help the girls for next season.

John DeMars, almost ... has a reversal.

The 1981-82 wrestlers had a good season, cheering on and supporting one another. A lot was accomplished, even though most of this year's team was young and inexperienced. Five wrestlers went to sub-state they were: S. Danahy, R. Wood, M. Wheat, M. Moore, and C. Burbandy.

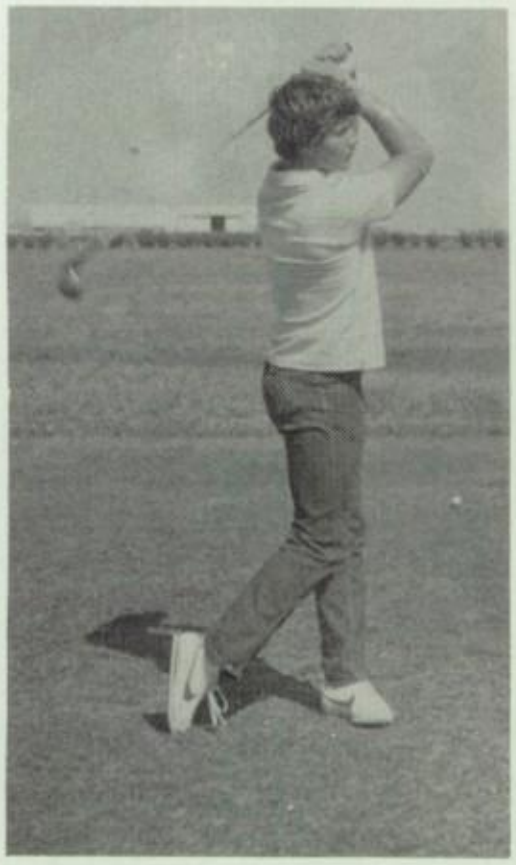
The 1982 Golf Team receives many awards.

The 1982 golf team, under the coaching of Bill Orth, in his final year at Goddard, received many medals. In fact, each member of the varsity team won at least five medals. Senior James McCully represented the team at State. In the tournament for state, James received 15th and shot an '83' Congratulations!



FO-O-ORE! Tim Seachris does his imitation of James McCully on this shot.

Girls and boys join together to form the 1982 track team.

The track team underwent many changes this year. One of the changes was the combining of the boys and girls teams. The girls scored 43 points at league with only seven girls participating. The boys finished third with very few seniors competing. State Qualifiers: Diane Dugan in the 100 meters and the boys qualified in the mile relay. Many other participants missed getting to state by inches or seconds. Another change was the youth of the team. Having few seniors and more underclassmen gives the team an excellent chance to build a strong team for the years to come.

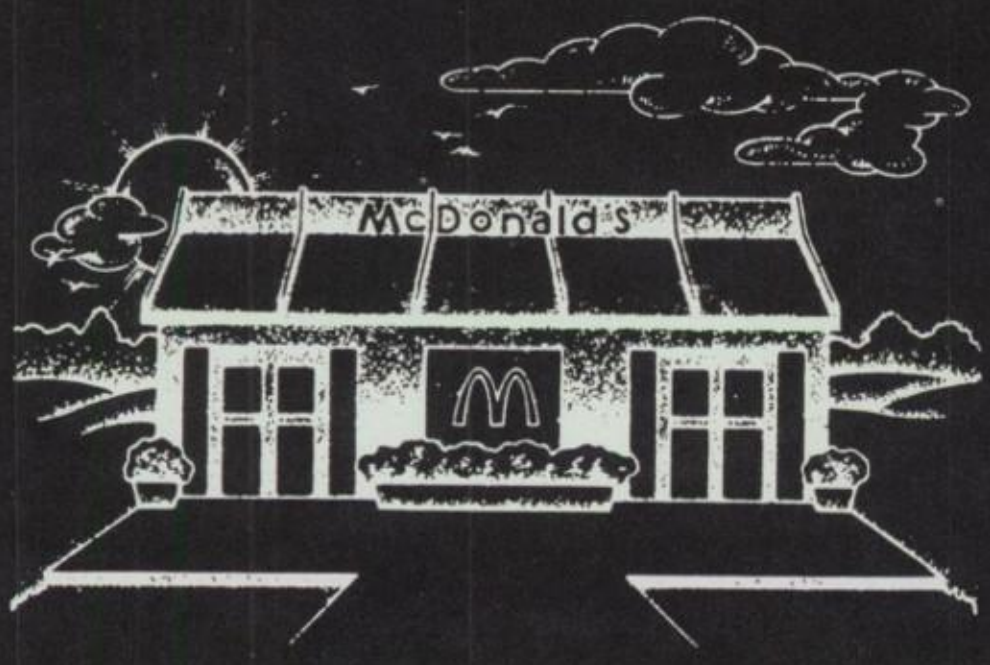
Going to McDonald's is almost as much a part of school as going to class. You've made us the place to meet, to talk, to have a good time, to celebrate your victories and help forget defeats.
You've made McDonald's more than just another place to eat.
And that's why, at McDonald's, we say . . .



Nobody can do it like McDonald's can™

In all thy ways acknowledge him and he will direct thy paths.
Proverbs 3:6

The Lord is the strength of my life --- In this will I be confident.
Psalm 27:1,3

New thoughts can remake you. William James once said, "The greatest discovery of my generation is that human beings can alter their lives by altering their attitudes of mind." As you think, so will you be. New and positive thoughts can displace defeating thoughts.

Think positively and you set in motion positive forces which bring positive results. In three words: Believe and succeed.
Norman Vincent Peale

The 1981-82 Drill Team

Bright lights, people cheering, the anticipation ..... Suddenly the whistle blows and the music starts. The excietment of performing is only one of the great benefits of being on Drill Team.

Drill team tryouts, new girls and new uniforms, the thrill of going to camp, performing and being proud of receiving an EXCELLENT rating. Becoming sisters with fourteen other girls, having the opportunity of performing at Cessna Stadium on the fourth of July. Receiving a one rating (the best!) at W.S.U., also a one rating at Hutch, plus most possible points any team could receive and we received it! Out of twenty-one teams we came home proud and #1! It was not all "sunshine!" We practiced before, during and after school. We wanted to be good so we worked at it. The 1981-82 Drill team was a terrific one! They made alot of people happy and some sad. But most of all they enjoyed what they did and they loved each other! I am going to miss everyone but I know God put us all together for a purpose. That purpose was to represent our school and to be the Best We Are Able To Be! Were #1!

SENIORS REACH THEIR GOAL!!!!!!!

Best of Luck to the Graduating Class of 1982!!!
From: (left to right) Nora Lieber, Mary Shepherd, Vicki Mickelsen, Cheri Wyatt, Angie Wolfe, Brenda Cropp, Becky Bogue, Kathy Allen, Shair Winfrey, Janelle Hoistington, Dawn Morrison, Mary Irsik, Michelle Silva, and Cheri Eisenman. See everyone in ten years or sooner!!!!!!!!!

It all starts so slow,
Impatient attitudes focused stubbornly on tomorrow.
That day only an eternity away.
Then it happens so suddenly, so rudely,
That "dreamed about" tomorrow arrives yesterday.
The warnings were there,
But were ignored.
Now, as the shock fades, uncertainty and insecurity grasp.
Your past accounted for, no changing that,
Your future is in your hands, yet no way to predict.
Finally, you sit back and wonder . . .
"Have I gained anything from that 'thirteen-year long yesterday that I can be proud of today'"?
